SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

How happy are the memories that surge back when we recall our three years at John Marshall . . . from that first day when we wandered through its spacious halls, our awed spirits garbed in a transparent cloak of freshman bravura, to our last ecstatic dance together . . . and all the thrills and the struggles, the passing disappointments, and the abiding joys, that filled those memorable years . . .

We were actually sophomores that first year. But how we floundered about trying to find places! We soon caught on however, and became loyal Marshallites; we learned our school yells and songs and attended all the school sports and social events. Friday afternoons we celebrated with a dance in the Wythe gym under the sponsorship of Miss Stevenson and Mr. Allison.

The next fall we returned to school—juniors! From the very start, the outlook for our junior class was bright. We organized quickly and elected officers. The boys must have been in favor that year, for an all-male slate was elected. Popular Bill Snead became our president; Bobby Johnson, vice-president; Jeff Pitts, secretary; and Alvin Southworth, treasurer. These officers, under the leadership of our new counselor, Miss Bray, launched us into a program of delightful and interesting activities.

One of the greatest thrills of our junior year was the junior-senior prom in the spring, held on May 12 at the Grays' Armory. Winners in the junior "Who's Who" were presented to the class.

The fall of '49 found us back at John Marshall once more—seniors, at long last! Miss Keene served not only as our counselor but also our class sponsor. Our officers included Clyde Bidle, president of the February class; David Drum, president of the June class; Barbara Benson, secretary; and Joyce Brooks, treasurer.

We made our first public appearance together during the Community Chest Drive, when we attended a luncheon at the Grays' Armory. This proved a valuable experience to us, giving us an opportunity to learn at first-hand the objectives of the Community Chest and the sacrifices made by the volunteer workers.

On January 26, we held our commencement dance in the Wythe gym, which was brightly decorated for this gala occasion. It was semi-formal, and what fun everyone had!

On Sunday, January 20, February graduates, clad in their blue and white caps and gowns, gathered to hear the baccalaureate sermon. The Reverend Alvin Reynolds, pastor of Northside Christian Church, brought an inspiring message that the graduates will long remember.

The following Tuesday marked the great event for the February class—the seventy-sixth commencement, which took place on January 31, at eight o'clock in the John Marshall High School auditorium. The school chorus enhanced the beauty and solemnity of the occasion with songs.

The beauty of the nativity
Christmas.

The John Marshall verse-speaking choir inspired us with its interpretation of "Freedom—Our Heritage," written by Norma Raney, Kathleen Emison, Alvin Southworth, and Malcolm Wyatt. Miss Keene, presented the class of 1950 to Dr. Dixon, who awarded the diplomas as Mr. William W. Brock, Jr. conducted the roll call of graduates. Proudly, for the last time, the seniors, in their blue and white caps and gowns, crossed the stage and received their diplomas.

As the spring term advanced, plans for our graduation in June materialized. On April 28, we elected our "Who's Who," the winners to be announced at that dance of all dances—our commencement dance! And what a dance it was! Never were we so happy and gay, so sad and glad as that last dance made us.

One June 8, we gathered for that impressive and unforgettable occasion, our baccalaureate service, with its message that will guide our way in years to come.

On the evening of June 9, at the Mosque, we met together for the last time. The John Marshall chorus sang, and the verse-speaking choir interpreted "The Virginia Dream" written by Bransford Eck, who integrated the chorologue, Gay Moran, Malcolm Wyatt, Alvin Southworth, Ronald Cantor, and Marian Vineyard. Then came the moment—the moment for which all the moments of all our years at John Marshall had prepared—the moment when our name rang out and we arose, in blue and white cap and gown, and crossed the stage. Very still we stood, our hearts brimming with pride and nostalgia, with love and tenderness, as Dr. Dixon presented our diplomas, symbols of those years that we shall never forget.

 Second row: J. WILLIAM NELMS, JONES W. ROACH, MISS BRAY, KAREN E. CALL, CAROLL B. EWELL, DORIS A. SCOTT

Our first activity was the election of officers. Running for president was Marian Minor and Keith Cardwell with Marian winning this election. Barbara Compton won from Doris Scott as vice-president. Nancy Chalkley was elected secretary with Gladys Hall as her opponent. For the office of treasury, Marion Owen and Charles Smith battled it out with the election of Marion.

In October everyone was keyed up about the first annual Tobacco Bowl in which our cadets made their colorful appearance.

On the wonderful day of the Jayem-Teejay game the sun shone brightly as if it too expected excitement. Our Juniors were well represented here with two he-man football players, Warren Douglas and Richard Gholson.

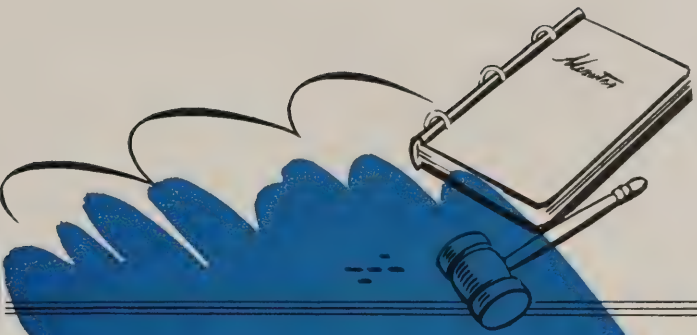

Long before December, the girls were gabbing about the Christmas Ball of the Cadets, where we were proud to have one of the Junior girls, June Omohundro, leading the figure.

The Juniors were also represented in athletics. If you had wandered down the Athletic field one afternoon, you would have seen tall, black-haired Jack Sandford and red-headed, Allen Jones, practicing for the coming track meet. In basketball, there was scrappy Raymond Pond. The girls were not to be outdone of course, there were Marian Minor and Nita Peterson who loved all sports.

Among the other colorful personalities we find Wiley Morgan who was a platoon sergeant in the Band, winning the best musician's medal twice. Also Wiley played with the Richmond Symphony Orchestra. Ray Williamson was the assembly bugler and a trumpet player who played with the R. P. I. Philharmonic on the radio. Tall Walter Burley played the drums with Jimmy Brown's orchestra which was engaged for most of our high school dances.

The Parent-Teacher-Student Association of John Marshall was organized three years ago with the idea of bringing closer co-operation among the parents, teachers and students. It was felt that this would bring about a better understanding of the home, school, and community in the education of the student.

The Executive Committee met and planned three general meetings for the year. The first meeting, held early in September, was a "get-acquainted" meeting. In December, the students presented a pageant portraying a cross section of school life centered around the theme, democracy. Work of the various departments was displayed at the last regular meeting held in April. Parents of students entering John Marshall in February were also given the opportunity to meet the teachers in a special "get-acquainted" meeting.

The National Honor Society has completed its twelfth year at John Marshall. This chapter of the organization was introduced to this school in 1939 by Dr. C. Patrick Ely.

The Society now numbers more than 2,400 chapters in high schools throughout the United States, Puerto Rico, Hawaii, and the Philippines.

Dorothy West succeeded Nancy Adkins as president in February, 1950; Joan Ware was succeeded by Helen Sue McCann as secretary; Leslie Powers relieved James Clarke of his financial duties as treasurer; and Joyce Brooks retained her position as scrapbook keeper.

Each term the names of the students in the upper third of the senior class are sent to the teachers for recommendation to the Society. To be eligible for membership in this organization your scholastic average must be 90 or above, and you are voted on by the members and a committee composed of the faculty.

Four principal standards, which the students try to uphold are character, scholarship, leadership and service.

The objective of the Society for the year was a program on colleges. These reports were to help the members decide on their college and to aid other school members in deciding the one they wished to attend.

The Society has thoroughly enjoyed the good times they have had with their sponsor, Miss Wilhelmina Wright.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

President	BILL SNEAD

Secretary	BARBARA ALLEN
Treasurer	DOLORES MITCHELL
Athletic Representative	MELVIN ROACH

Taking the oath of office are BILL SNEAD, President; DOLORES MITCHELL, Treasurer; BOBBIE ALLEN, Secretary; MELVIN ROACH, Athletic Representative; NORMA RANEY, Vice-President.

The student association, organized by Mr. Clinton Cosby, has, with the help of Miss Arnita Raffo, Miss Mary Jenkins, and Miss Catherine Cross as faculty advisers, been very successful in its work for the '49-'50 session.

In the 1949 spring term the students voted for the officers and members of the executive committee. These officers were students whom the other students thought were capable of carrying out the work of the organization. The students were elected on the basis of their willingness to work, their previous school activities and their dependability.

The executive committee meets once a week and has functioned as a commission type of government under the following commissions: Assembly, Cafeteria, Point System, which is to insure that more students participate in school activities, Service Awards, to award those who have not gained recognition in school services, School Spirit and Morale, Publicity, Research, Safety, and Bulletin Board. Each one of these commissions is aided by a faculty sponsor.

The student association undertook several projects and carried out most of them during the '49-'50 terms. Four plaques were bought and placed upon the pictures in the halls to identify them. Thanksgiving baskets, donated by individual homerooms, were distributed to needy persons. The student association, helping the Cadet Corps, collected money from student body for the Cadet Memorial Fund, which resulted in the purchase of twin flag poles. A report was given at one of the P. T. S. A. meetings by each of the commissions outlining their accomplishments and objectives.

During the football, baseball and basketball seasons the student association sold blue and white schedule pencils. Football pins and programs were sold at the football games. A pep rally was held in the morning before each of the important football and basketball games to increase school spirit.

At a special Armistice Day program the student association contributed two memorial wreaths to honor the dead of World War I and World War II.

Co-operating with the community projects, the student association collected $63.80 for the Christmas Mother and $236.18 for the March of Dimes.

At the beginning of each term, an orientation assembly for the new Freshmen coming to John Marshall was held by the student association. Dr. Fred B. Dixon, the school's principal, and several leaders of school activities were introduced to the Freshmen at these exercises. They were carried on a tour of the building, including offices and the library. After the tour, they were served refreshments in the Wythe cafeteria.

Those of the February and June graduating classes who have faithfully served the student association leave their best wishes to the new members of the student association of J. M. H. S.

QUILL AND SCROLL

Gay laughter and the munching of cookies were typical sounds that drifted from The Monocle pressroom on November 30 when Quill and Scroll held its first party following the initiation of twenty new members into the society.

Miss Kathleen Burkett, a John Marshall graduate and member of Quill and Scroll, presided at the initiation and presented the initiates to Mr. Floyd Fowlkes, assistant principal, who welcomed the new members into the John Marshall chapter. These new members all ranked in the upper third of the class and had done distinctive work in the field of journalism.

Previous to the initiation, the society was jubilant to learn that the annual award from International Quill and Scroll went to The Monocle, showing that the school paper was still at the top in excellence.

In the first meeting following the initiation, the journalists chose as their leaders Mary Ann Clements, president; Carlton Newton, vice-president; James Clark, secretary-treasurer; and Nancy Adkins and James Lindsey, co-scrapbook keepers.

With December came the spirit of Christmas and the annual Quill and Scroll Christmas party. Members of the society formed a receiving line to welcome alumni, faculty members, and students of the journalism class.

Another memorable occasion was The Monocle press banquet held at Langford's Cafeteria January 16. Members of Quill and Scroll presided at the luncheon and announced the names of the new staff. Many faculty members were present, and all agreed that they had a delightful time.

In the spring term, the chapter added thirty-three students to its membership in a ceremony on March 23. Lighted candles representing truth, loyalty, opportunity, culture, initiative, leadership, and friendship adorned the stage. Joan Layman, president, presided and introduced the students to Dr. Fred B. Dixon. Miss Charles Anthony, sponsor, presented Quill and Scroll pins.

In the recent Southern Interscholastic Press Association contest in Lexington, Virginia, The Monocle won a trophy for being the best newspaper in its class in the South.

Although it did not receive a trophy, The Marshallite won a first award.

Through the efforts of Mrs. Charlotte De Courcy and Miss Eva Branch, the Class of Drama became a regular part of the speech course in 1938. Students, who must have had at least one term in speech, direct, produce, and act in plays given in room 209. In this room are stage, curtains and other equipment, which were obtained by Miss De Courcy. Besides acting, each student keeps a record of the activities of the entire course in a notebook with pictures of costumes through the ages. Work on committees such as library, costumes, lights, props, make-up, set, and bulletin board is included.

Some of the one-act plays produced as class work were: The Dear Departed, Always a Prisoner, The Woman in the Freight Car, The Valiant, Fourteen, Never Too Old, Overtones, Holding a Husband, Wisdom Teeth, Wrong Numbers, Three's a Crowd, Letters, and scenes from Dear Brutus, The Importance of Being Earnest, and Quality Street.

The Thespians have engaged in many interesting activities.

Besides the plays, skits, and programs given at their weekly meetings, they have presented two assembly programs, one for National Education Week, in which all the members of the club participated, quoting the ideas of the "Great" throughout the ages on the subject of education. To add a lighter note, a talent show, consisting of songs, dances, impersonations, and piano solos followed. The highlight of the occasion was the presentation to the school of General Omar N. Bradley's letter.

For the Thanksgiving assembly program, the Thespians gave group readings and told the story of The First Presidential Thanksgiving Proclamation.

Two other projects in which Thespians engaged were to entertain convalescent soldiers at McGuire's General Hospital and to read to children in Sheltering Arms Hospital and the Crippled Children's Hospital.

Their most amusing program — not excluding parties — was the Hill-Billy Wedding, written, costumed, and directed by members of the club.

The year 1949-50 has proved to be a very happy and, we hope, successful year for the Junior Red Cross. With such an enthusiastic corps of workers and the cooperation of the student body and faculty, the filling of 96 boxes sent overseas, and the raising of $285.15 in our membership drive, was not a hard task. The making of a booklet for shut-ins, the visitations to the Medical College Hospital to cheer the shut-ins, and Saturday mornings spent working at McGuire's Hospital was also included in the work done by our members. The school gave $16, candy, cigarettes, and chewing gum to fill one hundred stockings for Christmas.

Our publicity chairman broadcast over the radio, and has kept our bulletin board full of pertinent information regarding the activities of the Red Cross. Miss Gleaves' sewing classes made layettes for use

VERSE SPEAKING CHOIR

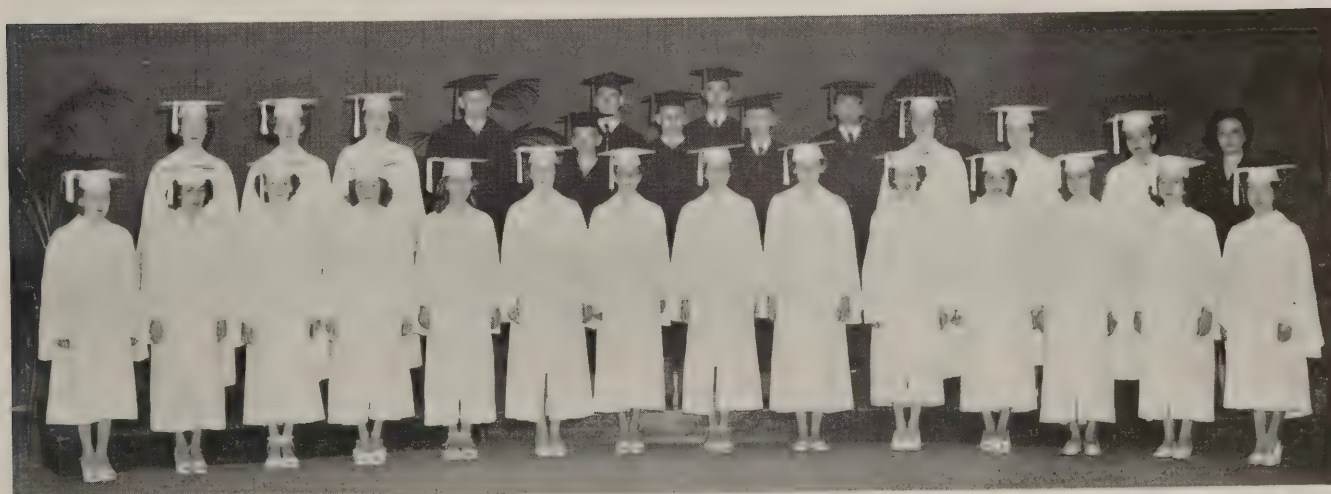

The Verse-Speaking Choir by participating in many activities at John Marshall has tried to stimulate in its members, a greater appreciation of poetry and prose and to create in the audience greater interest in interpretation through choral reading.

Its repertoire consists of humorous works as well as those of a serious nature. The selections are read from memory and include solo parts in addition to group work. It has appeared at the Thanksgiving Assembly, at the dedication of the plaque in honor of those who gave their lives for their country in World War II, and at each Parent-Teacher-Student Association meeting. The Choir also took part in the annual Christmas pageant, "The Prince of Peace". This group read at each Commencement original selections written especially for presentation on those occasions.

John Marshall is indebted to Miss Thelma Keene for introducing and sponsoring this activity.

¡Qué tal, amigos! Again the Don Juan club has completed a year of activities enjoyed by its members who are interested especially in Spanish and the peoples who speak it. Our official language is "español"; our favorite dance, the "rhumba"; our choice of foods "chili con carne"; our favorite hour of the day, the "siesta". ¡Ah! ¡Qué vida! Thus it is that we have many opportunities of having fun with our favorite foreign language. Often, however, we get assistance from natives who are glad to give us first-hand information and who are always welcomed by the group. Spanish songs, games, movies and recordings are our special delight. We must admit, nevertheless, that the highlight of each year is our banquet held in the spring jointly with the French club and the Latin department. To our surprise and enjoyment we find that Goldilocks and the Three Bears are also enthusiasts of the three languages. When one is privileged to join us on our trip to Washington, we definitely prove our physical endurance by our ability to cover the main points of interest between sunrise and sunset of one single day.

With our motto of "Adelante, Siempre Adelante", next year is anticipated with equal pleasure for we are interested in a language with a future.

Buena Suerte! Amigos. Hasta la Vista.

Membership in the John Marshall High School Business Education Club is restricted to boys and girls taking one or more business subjects.

The primary functions of the club are: to afford an opportunity for improving efficiency in business, to gain and attain higher standards in the profession, to provide a facility for acquiring skilled knowledge, short cuts and up-to-date techniques in stenography, to promote understanding among students with similar goals, to encourage students to study business, to broaden our views socially and professionally.

Club activities are unlimited in the business department. Our meetings are held once monthly at two recess periods. We have been able to acquire the services of numerous executives in personnel divisions of local organizations, who have spoken on such topics as "Criteria for Selecting a Typist," "Interviews," "Clerical Job Opportunities," "The Private Secretary" and "Promotion Possibilities." Mrs. Mattie Thurston, a confidential secretary of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company, was among this semester's guest list.

A number of films have been made available to our Department. Among them have been shown the following: "Telephone Courtesy," "So You Want to be a Secretary," "Bookkeeping," "Stepping Along With Television," and "Machine Transcription."

Numerous field trips are sponsored through our club. We visit an insurance company, a typewriter office, The Medical College of Virginia and one or more banks each term. The First and Merchants National Bank officials very graciously allowed us to take our picture for the Marshallite within the confines of its vault.

In addition to the officers listed, the following committee members plan and expedite the activities of the club:

The Distributive Education Club consists of twenty-three members who go to school half a day and work the other half in retail stores.

We started our activities out this year by conducting a silver survey for the Gorham Silver Company. During the Christmas season, we sold Christmas cards designed by the commercial art class and printed by the vocational printing class. In the month of February the members of our club attended the Northern Area Conference held at Curles Neck Dairy in the Hostess Room. We started out the month of March by calling an alumni meeting which was held here at our school in room 6. Then came the Annual Employee-Employer Banquet. The members of the John Marshall, Thomas Jefferson, and Richmond Professional Institute Distributive Education Clubs invited their employers to attend the dinner, held at Ewart's Cafeteria in the Monticello Room. At the banquet our club was awarded the State Honor Club Award. Competition is carried on between thirty other clubs in Virginia. We won the award by having all of our club paraphernalia, by doing all of the many activities we have done, and by having regular attendance at school by our club members. On March 14 and 15, the State Convention was held here in Richmond at the W. R. N. L. studio. Donald Savage represented our club at the convention. Donald was elected Parliamentarian for the state club and one of the six delegates to represent Virginia at the National Convention, which was held in Ashville, N. C. in the month of April. The poster that we entered in the Poster Contest won second prize, a bronze cup. We also entered two merchandise manuals in the Merchandise Manual Contest.

PART-TIME COOPERATIVE TRAINING CLASS

The class is made up of senior students who intend to work in an office upon graduation from high school. The students must have at least one year of typewriting before they can enroll in the class. The terminal semester of the senior year is a period of part-time on-the-job training. A minimum of fifteen hours per week employment in an office is required. Students receive school credit for classwork as well as for satisfactory work on the job. Students receive pay for their office work in addition to the school credit toward graduation.

There are many advantages to the student. It offers specialized pre-employment training. It gives the student an opportunity to try out in a real job situation. It saves time in discovering real interests and ability. It enables the student to earn while learning. It usually assures immediate full-time employment upon graduation. It usually assures more rapid promotion. It offers a wide variety of experiences which broaden job opportunities. It helps develop a feeling of confidence in one's ability.

Many phases of office work are included in the classroom instruction. First, office conduct is stressed, including responsibility to the employer, work habits, business etiquette, grooming and dress for the office, and human relations. Second, office procedures, including filing, answering the telephone, executing business forms, handling office mail, and receiving office callers. LIBRARY STAFF

Thirty student library assistants have been rendering most valuable service to fellow students and the school by serving as volunteer workers in the library. Their duties include aiding students in locating materials, routine desk work, checking passes, typing, filing, etc. The entire staff feels that the time spent in the library has given them a greater knowledge of books and library administration.

The staff holds regular meetings the second and fourth Thursday of the month at which time library problems are discussed. Each student on the staff meets certain standards scholastically and with regard to library techniques.

LITERARY SOCIETY

The John Marshall Literary Society has an enrollment of thirty-five students selected from a list recommended by the teachers of English. The activities of the group for the session of 1949-1950 included discussions of favorite books and authors, comments on current moving pictures, a special celebration of Book Week, visits to Virginia State Library and to museums, and social meetings.

This year the Society chose a design for a standard pin.

"Bonjour, mes amis." The members of the Sans Souci club have had a busy year with speakers, parties, and other types of programs.

In the fall the club was honored to have as its guests two attractive French housewives who spoke to us in French and in English. "Nous nous sommes bien amusés."

Singing has played an important role in the club.

The Christian Youth League, organized in 1938, sponsors a program of worship service, and fellowship. Most of the worship programs this year have been led by members and discussions have been encouraged. The club provided this year: a Christmas party for more than one hundred children of a Sunday School class in Scotland, and they also made scrap-books for the children in a Richmond hospital.

The purpose of the John Marshall Forum Club is to make better prepared and more responsible citizens, and to promote student interest in world affairs.

We have had many fine opportunities to advance our interests this year. Furnishing ushers and student panels for the Richmond Public Forum has brought both knowledge and pleasure. The officers of the club attended the all-day International-Relations Conference at Randolph-Macon College. There our party split up, each person choosing a different subject, and went to small conference groups. Lunch was served after this. Then we had talks by four very interesting foreign students, and movies relative to our topics. The guest speaker, Mr. S. K. Shastri, was next on the program. Two of our members were lucky enough to have lunch with Mr. Shastri. The day ended with a lovely tea given by the ladies of the Campus Circle for all the guests.

Our weekly programs help us a great deal in understanding present problems by reports and panel discussions given by our members. Occasionally we have a guest speaker for the program. The Sans-Souci and the Forum Clubs held a joint meeting at which we were fortunate enough to have three German speakers who charmed us with their interest, information, and wit.

However, our club is not all work and no play. In addition to our day at Randolph-Macon, we have had a grand picnic at Bryan Park. A tour through the capitol building was interesting and helped us a good deal in our study of the General Assembly and its meeting of this year.

The combined efforts of our enthusiastic members, capable officers, and our understanding sponsor, Miss Bowers, have resulted in an increased membership for the year.

The John Marshall High School Orchestra began the new school year under the direction of Mr. Morton Minnich, in the position vacated by Mr. Donald Berky.

Six members of the orchestra took part in the seventh annual All-State Orchestra held at Thomas Jefferson High School early in December. This year, for the first time, the wind and percussion instruments were added to make it a full orchestra. Mildred Gunn had second chair, playing first violin, Betty Walters had fifth chair, playing cello, and David Drum played first clarinet.

During the latter part of March the John Marshall Orchestra participated in the State Competitive Music Festival. The orchestra received an excellent rating; Mildred Gunn was declared excellent for her violin solo.

The orchestra has contributed music to the assembly programs. Besides these, it took part in the Baccalaureate Services and Commencement Exercises in February and June.

A combination of the chorus, orchestra, and band gave a concert in May. This was the first of its kind in several years.

The Girls' Athletic Association, a club organized for the purpose of encouraging the John Marshall girls to participate in some type of physical activity, as an aid to forming and maintaining a healthy, well developed, and graceful body. Participation in all phases of the Physical Education program are encouraged, with great emphasis placed on school spirit, friendliness and a true spirit of good sportsmanship in each of its members.

All girls are eligible for membership. To become an active member, one must participate in some sponsored activity and pay her dues for which she receives a membership card; this is presented to the secretary upon entering the meeting.

Meetings of the Association are held regularly every first and third Thursday. After the business meeting, an entertaining program follows.

The activities of this group include volleyball, basketball, softball, bowling, swimming, dancing, and any other sport in which the girls are interested and for which there are facilities.

Besides sports and tournaments this association has sponsored programs such as a talent show, sale of book covers, Arthur Murray dance demonstration and instruction, a May Day celebration, and club outings.

Hello, Marshallites! Have you ever wondered what's going on down in that busy little room 114? Why that's where your school magazine, The Record, is in the making throughout the seasons.

We're always as busy as bees—planning the general outline of our magazine, correcting manuscripts, and dreaming up new ideas. Speaking of new ideas, have you noticed the covers of the last four Records, and our popular new department "Life In These John Marshall Classes"? Still another added attraction is a list of books, the current best-sellers, at the end of the book reviews.

Still another honor came our way when the National Scholastic Press Association awarded us with "All American Honor Rating."

Celebrating its twenty-first birthday March 1, 1950, The Monocle continues to maintain high standards.

This year The Monocle took part in the 40th anniversary rededication ceremony of John Marshall High School with a series of editorials and stories.

The Monocle received excellent backing this year. For the first time, The Monocle saw the corps of cadets subscribe 100% both terms.

In observance of National Newspaper Week, The Monocle dedicated an issue to the 100th anniversary of the death of Edgar Allan Poe and received an activities award from Quill and Scroll for this distinguished issue.

This year, as in the past, The Monocle supported the Red Cross drive, Community Fund, Mile of Dimes, and other charitable organizations.

The newspaper received international honor rating from Quill and Scroll and a medalist rating from Columbia University. Both are the highest honor those organizations award.

In April, The Monocle sent a representative to the Southern Interscholastic Press Association meeting in Lexington.

Keeping the students informed on the happenings around school is the aim of John Marshall's bi-weekly newspaper. Not only does The Monocle keep abreast of school news, but it carries a regular column of state and national news plus stories of the more important occurrences.

Under Miss Charles Anthony, students desiring to work on The Monocle take a class in journalism. This enables them to learn how to make and manage a newspaper, both journalistically and financially.

THE MARSHALLITE

"Tomorrow and tomorrow and tomorrow creeps in this petty pace from day to day," so wrote the immortal Shakespeare. And we of the 1950 MARSHALLITE Staff hope to capture within its bounds the beloved theme of all our yesterdays and make them live only as today.

This year the staff has had the good fortune of having Ann Morris and Shirley Millington as co-editors. With the invaluable help of Mrs. Burnett, they have made THE MARSHALLITE meetings and affairs something to be pleasantly anticipated by the whole staff. The many trips to see Mr. Ford, the commercial artist; Mr. Christopher, the engraver; and Mr. Butler at W. M. Brown & Sons, our printer, will not soon be forgotten.

To assist in the editorial duties and to make our work interesting the staff was divided into different committees, each being assigned a certain job.

To obtain $1,000 in advertisements was one of the major responsibilities in creating our yearbook. Six of the staff are now members of the "J. M. 50 Club," which requires the selling of $50 of advertising space in the yearbook. Lawrence Mason, our advertising manager, sold the largest number of ads.

It may seem that the origination of THE MARSHALLITE was all work. However, the staff had a lot of fun just watching the book grow and finally take shape as a remembrance of a lot of good fun in those three most remembered years of our life—high school.

FOOTBALL

The year 1949 marked the advent of the "T" formation at John Marshall, and typical of many squads that revamp their offense, the Justices floundered thru the early stages of the campaign, managing, however, to hit their stride in the closing contests.

Jayem journeyed to Norfolk for the opening tilt and dropped a close 13 to 6 decision to the Comets.

The following week John Marshall trounced St. Christopher's 19 to 0 as quarterback Mel Roach accounted for his team's entire point output.

An underdog Benedictine eleven overcame a 19 point deficit to tie Jayem 19 to 19 in an exciting fray.

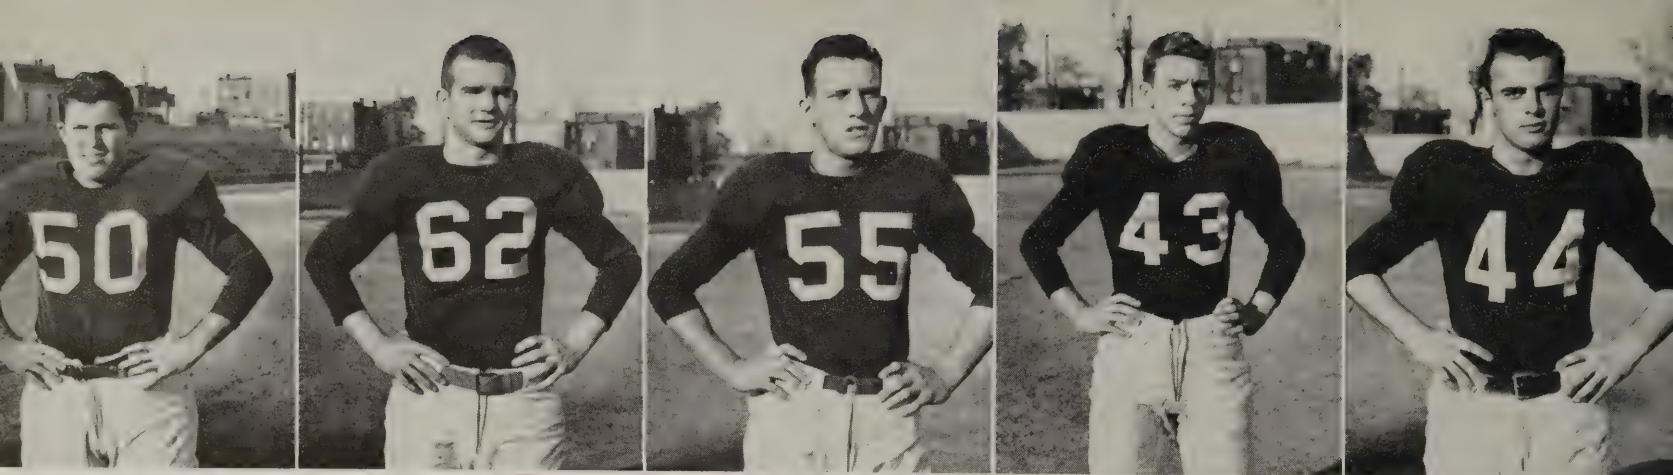

Jefferson Senior started a four-game John Marshall losing streak when they humbled the Justices 27 to 7.

The Blue and White gridders traveled to Hampton the next week and returned smarting from a 20 to 7 spanking administered by the Crabbers. The highlight of the game was Buddy Simmons' scintillating 97-yard romp to paydirt.

Hopewell slipped and skidded through a sea of mud at the city stadium to defeat Jayem 18 to 0 and continue the latter's winless streak.

John Marshall played host to Alexandria's George Washington High squad and fell before the visitor's high geared offense 25 to 7.

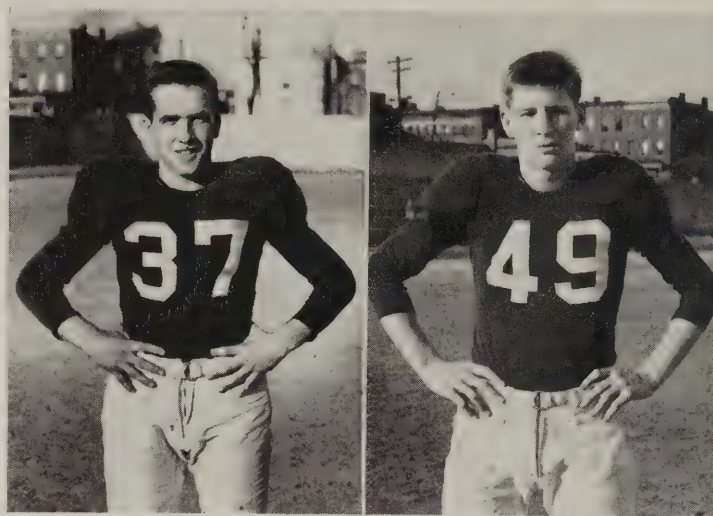

The following week the Justices snapped their losing streak with a surprise 30 to 13 conquest of McKinley Tech of Washington, D. C.

Coach Jim Hickey's charges pulled the upset of the year to atone for earlier losses when they tripped their cross-town rivals, highly-touted Thomas Jefferson, 15 to 17 in their annual city classic.

Experiencing a letdown after their stunning triumph over Teejay, the Jayem eleven closed the season on a sour note by succumbing to Petersburg 25 to 13 in the Thanksgiving Day tilt.

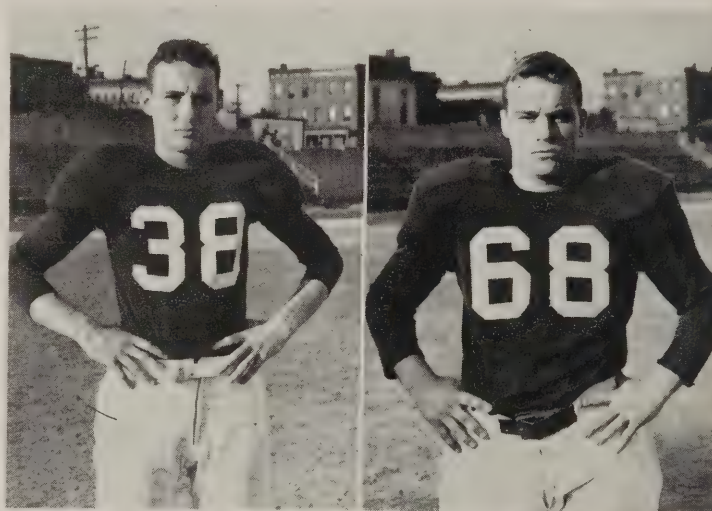

Several John Marshall players won honors for their sterling gridiron performances during the campaign.

Mel Roach, Granville Grant, and Warren Douglas were named to the All-City squad, while Roach also won a berth on the mythical All-State eleven.

After tripping Petersburg 31 to 24 in the opening tilt of the season, the John Marshall Cagers proceeded to drop twelve consecutive contests, enabling them to post a 3-13 overall record in a disappointing campaign.

St. Christopher's started the losing streak by surprising the Justices 33 to 23.

Then the Jayem quint bowed to Benedictine 40 to 33, Granby 46 to 35, Thomas Jefferson 51 to 36, and Hopewell 40 to 37.

Coach Jim Hickey's lads went on a swing through the Tidewater area and dropped decisions to Hampton and Maury, by the scores of 50 to 46 and 50 to 41, respectively.

The following week, the Petersburg Crimson Wave revenged the earlier loss by humbling John Marshall 46 to 33 in the Cockade City.

After suffering their ninth setback in a row, the Justices came close to fashioning the upset of the year by battling their crosstown rivals, Thomas Jefferson, on even terms throughout the entire contest, only to emerge on the short end of a 41 to 38 count.

The Maury Commodores and St. Christopher's defeated the Jayem quint 34 to 32 and 36 to 26, respectively, the next week.

The John Marshall five snapped their losing skein by upsetting the Granby Comets, the eventual state champions, 43 to 37 before an enthused Grays' Armory throng.

The Blue-White then proceeded to make it two in a row by edging Hopewell 60 to 55 on the Wonder City court.

The Justices closed the campaign on a sour note by succumbing to the Hampton Crabbers.

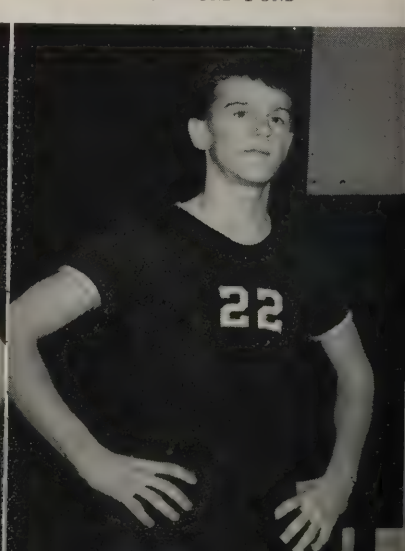

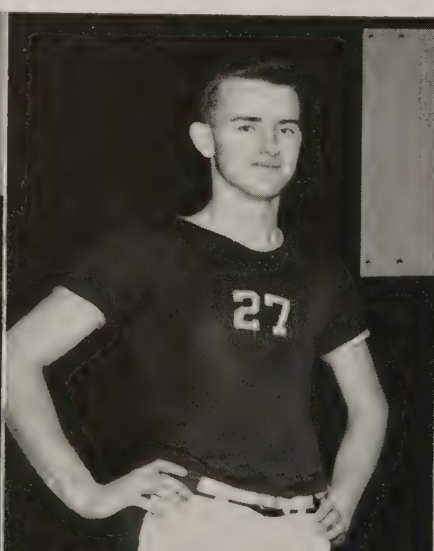

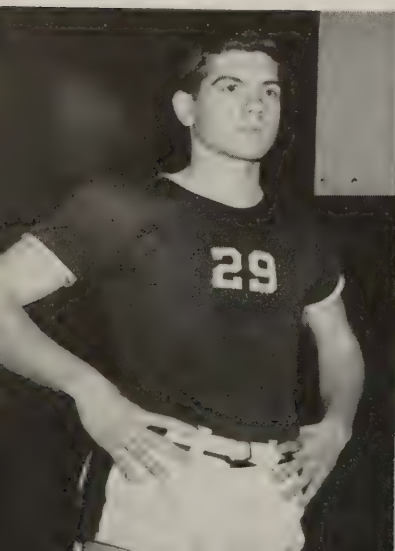

The Justices were co-captained by veterans Buddy Simmons and Mel Roach, the latter winning a spot on the All-City five by virtue of his point-producing abilities and brilliant floor play.

The John Marshall baseball team, Central District titleholders, opened the 1950 campaign by dropping a 10 to 6 decision to Maury High in Norfolk.

The Justices started district play the following week, overcoming an early two-run deficit to edge the Crimson Wave 5 to 3.

The Granby Comets entertained the Jayem nine in a wild contest and came out on the short end of a 12 to 9 score.

Petersburg evened the count the next week by scoring a run in the bottom half of the ninth to edge the Justices 6 to 5.

Following a 14 to 13 victory over the Richmond Freshmen, John Marshall played host to their traditional rivals, Thomas Jefferson, and decided the Jeffs 7 to 4.

The Blue-White continued their winning ways by surprising a strong Benedictine nine 3 to 2, and outslugging St .Christopher's 12 to 9.

The same week Coach Tommy Thompson's charges dealt Hopewell their initial setback in scholastic ranks, upsetting the Blue Devils 5 to 3, only to suffer complete reversal of form as the Wonder City lads drubbed them 18 to 7 in their second encounter.

Jayem also dropped a 14 to 13 contest to the Baby Jackets from Randolph-Macon.

TRACK

The John Marshall track team came into their own by winning six of their first seven meets and breaking a Tidewater record. Co-captained by Percy Blackburn and Allen Jones, the Justices had a surprisingly good season in '50.

The Justice harriers opened the season by downing favored Hampton High 67-46. They kept up the success by easy victories over the track and field teams of Highland Springs and Glen Allen by scores of 62-51 and 95-18, respectively.

The Justices got their first taste of defeat at the hands of the E. C. Glass thinclads from Lynchburg, but got back into their winning ways by defeating Hopewell 83 $\frac{1}{4}$ -29 $\frac{3}{4}$.

The highlight of the season was an upset victory on the part of Coach Fred Hardy's track and field team in the annual Tidewater meet at William and Mary College in Williamsburg. John Marshall racked up 25 points with Teejay close behind with 22. The deciding factor in this meet was the last event, the mile relay. The Justice relay team of Allen Jones, Jack Sandford, Cecil Cheatham, and Percy Blackburn set a new time of 3:33:4

The team takes a few practice laps.

PERCY BLACKBURN shows his heels in the high hurdles.

for this event. The old time of 3:34:8 was jointly held by John Marshall and Newport News.

Outstanding performances for the season were turned in by Granville Grant, who set a new school record by a 138-foot toss of the discus and Jack Sandford, whose consistency in winning the mile and placing in at least two other events helped John Marshall tremendously. Buddy Simmons clearing the pole vault at a steady 11-foot mark added much needed strength to the field events. The Justices two Allens—Barbee and Jones—were always good for a place in the dashes and Percy Blackburn's performance on the hurdles usually boosted the score for Jayem. At the state indoor meet at Charlottesville, Percy tied Jack Gale's high hurdles record with a cool 6.7 second mark.

More interest was shown in track this year than has been in the past. This is due primarily to Coach Hardy's renovation of the track facilities which makes it possible for the spectators to see all the events from the grandstand and allows the meet to run more smoothly.

John Marshall's cross country team, composed of Tommy Stone, Cecil Cheatham, and Jack Sandford, held its own among stiff competition. Their first test was a dual meet with Thomas Jefferson and the University of Richmond. The Justices won this meet and later defeated Teejay again. The thinclads lost their next two cross country meets with Bridgewater College and University of North Carolina but placed second in the A.A.U. meet.

HOCKEY

When the John Marshall girls gathered on the hockey field out at Hotchkiss in September of '49, the forward line lacked just one player. Bitsy Barker, Connie Rawls, Ann Gouldin and Gloria Smith were in their regular positions, but where were the backs? Virginia Durette and Virginia Dalton had the full-back positions well filled, but there were no halfbacks and no goalie.

After scouting through the freshman ranks we found Phyllis Cecil to fill in the forward line gap. June Omohundro, Barbara Snellings, Rose Dranchak and Nita Tyler came up from the second team to fill in the halfback positions, along with Nancy Chalkley and Nita Peterson, two juniors, who helped with the half-back and goalie positions.

Just as the team was beginning to work together smoothly, Ginny Dalton left us for a husband.

We finally won one game, tied one, placed Ann Gouldin on the Prep School Team, Bitsy Barker, Gloria Smith, June Omohundro, and Virginia Durette on the Reserve Team, and took part in the Hockey Play Day sponsored by the Virginia Field Hockey Association at Westhampton College.

GIRLS' BASKET BALL

The John Marshall Girls' Basketball Team gave promise of being a powerhouse with six letter "girls" around with which to build a team—forwards Connie Raws, Lorraine Burton, Gloria Smith and Ann Gouldin; guards Marjorie Scott and Carolyn White. The catch? Graduation! Goodbye Connie, Gloria and Carolyn! Ann Gouldin had to stop due to illness. The picture looked black until guards Marian Minor, June Omohundro, Nancy Chalkley, Joan Layman and Maxine Lowry, along with forwards Anna Mae Jordan, Frances Crouch, Carol Hayden and Virginia Durette stepped up to fill in the vacancies.

The J. M. team is a member of a Prep School League made up of six teams. March 4, a tournament was held for these schools and a selection committee picked an all Prep School Team and a Reserve Team. Frances Crouch made the Prep School Team, Anna Mae Jordan and Marjorie Scott the Reserve Team and Lorraine Burton Substitute Reserve.

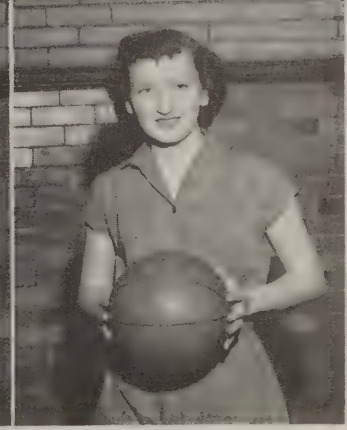

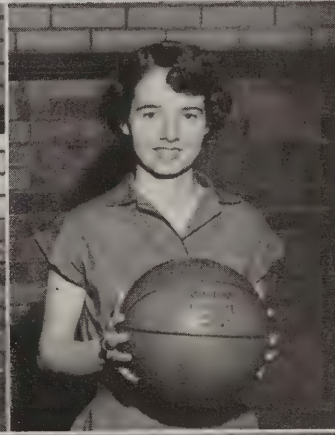

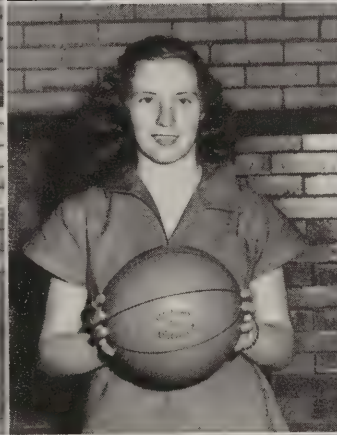

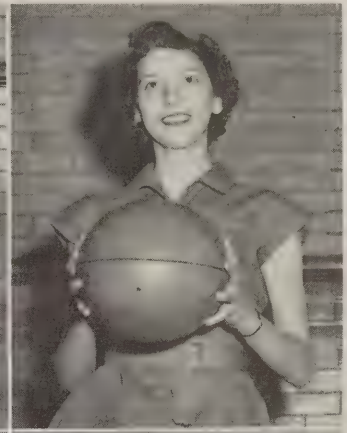

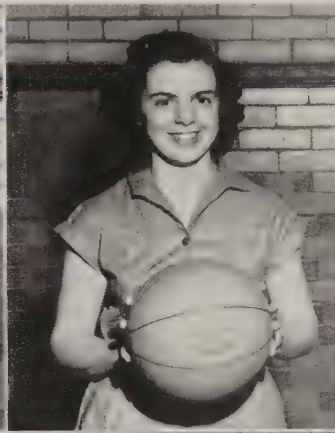

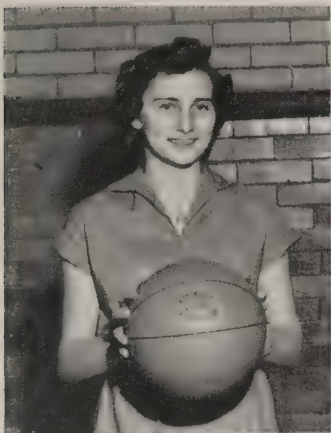

In spite of the "4 win 6 loss" team record the 1949-50 season is one to be remembered for its success—hard work, fun, and ever present spirit of good sportsmanship.

COMPLIMENTS OF A FRIEND

Planning For Future Security . . .

Thousands of young men and women graduate from high schools throughout the land this June. Many of them look towards college educations and career opportunities which could not have been theirs except for life insurance purchased for them years ago by a loving parent or relative.

Life insurance guarantees many other personal and family ambitions too, and its ownership will bring you the same satisfaction and security it now provides millions in all walks of life.

How to Make Friends, and KEEP THEM . . .

1. Keep skid chains on your tongue; always say less than you think. Cultivate a low, persuasive voice. How you say it often counts for more than what you say.
2. Make promises sparingly, and keep them faithfully, no matter what it costs you.
3. Never let an opportunity pass to say a kind and encouraging thing to or about somebody. Praise good work done, regardless of who did it. If criticism is merited, criticize helpfully, never spitefully.
4. Be interested in others, interested in their pursuits, their welfare, their homes and families. Make merry with those who rejoice, and mourn with those who weep. Let everyone you meet, however humble, feel that you regard him as a person of importance.
5. Be cheerful. Keep the corners of your mouth turned up. Hide your pains, worries and disappointments under a pleasant smile. Laugh at good stories, and learn to tell them.
6. Preserve an open mind on all debatable questions. Discuss, but don't argue. It is a mark of superior minds to disagree and yet be friendly.
7. Let your virtues, if you have any, speak for themselves, and refuse to talk of another's vices. Discourage gossip, and make it a rule to say nothing of another unless it is something good.
8. Be careful of others' feelings. Wit and humor at the other fellow's expense are rarely worth the effort, and may hurt where least expected.
9. Pay no attention to ill-natured remarks about you. Simply live so nobody will believe them. Disordered nerves and poor digestion are common causes of backbiting.
10. Don't be too anxious about getting just dues. Do your work, be patient, keep your disposition sweet, forget self, and you will be respected and rewarded.

The Mark of A Champion . . .

WHEN a young man can face the business world with the same undaunted courage that he bucks the line in football, and can take the bumps that inevitably will come to him in business, and can keep his fighting spirit and keep smiling . . . then he has the mark of a champion. The world needs young men like this and the world will make way for them. The life insurance business needs such men, so why not prepare yourself for a career in the life insurance business. It's a business of opportunity for young men of ambition and vision.
